

Computer Camp for Junior High & High School Students

Instructors: Jeff Guymon, Network Engineer
Clinton Olsen, IS/GIS Technician

Dates:

June 26, 2007 8 am - 12 pm

June 26, 2007 1 pm - 5 pm

Cost:

$5.00 per student (cost includes a snack, and materials)

Location:

Castle Dale Library
115 North 100 East
Castle Dale, UT

Course Description:

This is a 4-hour camp, which will be taught at the Castle Dale Library with a morning, and an afternoon session. The camp is designed for incoming 6th through graduating 12th grade students. Camp instruction will consist of computer training, and hands-on exercises. Those students who are interested will be able to fulfill requirements for the Computer Merit Badge. During the course students will receive a flash drive that they can keep. This class is not designed for advanced computer users.

Course Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, the student should be able to understand the fundamentals of: (1) computer hardware identification, (2) computer networking, and network troubleshooting, (3) web page design.

Class Size:

This camp has limited enrollment capacity. Reserved enrollment opening for Students are as follows:

Minimum Students: 6 per class

Maximum Students: 12 per class

If you have any questions you may contact us at:

Jeff Guymon (435) 381-5281

jguymon@co.emery.ut.us

Clinton Olsen (435) 381-5281

clinton@co.emery.ut.us

