

EMERY COUNTY
SHERIFF'S OFFICE ROSTER
GREEN RIVER PATROL

NOTICE OF EXAMINATION

The Emery County Sheriff's Office will be compiling a roster from which qualified individuals may be selected when openings for a Green River Patrol Deputy occur. The applicant must live in Green River or be willing to relocate to Green River. The examination will be designed to fairly test the mental ability and knowledge of the applicants. The Police Officer Selections Test (POST) will be administered and the cost to take the exam will be $20.00. You will be notified of more details when the date for the testing has been set. Interested applicants will also be required to pass a physical agility test when the written test is administered.

Applicants for the examination process must be a minimum of 21 years of age and citizen of the United States. Applicants will be disqualified if they have been convicted, as defined under Utah law, of (a) any felony; (b) any Class A Misdemeanor; (c) domestic violence; (d) Class B Misdemeanor DUI within the last five years; or (e) any criminal offense involving moral turpitude.

Applicants for employment may be required to undergo a drug test and/or background check as a condition of employment.
